

Lytham Hall

Private Functions

Function & Events

The fine Palladian style house was commissioned by Sir Thomas Clifton in 1752 to replace a previous house on the site, the seat of the Clifton family. The house survives with little alteration today and is regarded as one of the best works of the eminent architect, John Carr of York. He spent ten years completing the design, which incorporated some of the earlier 16th century house, the remains of which are still visible in the Courtyard and West Wing.

There are several ways of creating your perfect event at Lytham Hall as we have many different rooms and outdoor space.

There are facilities available to meet all your function's needs with ample car parking / disabled parking on site. Ramp and lift access is available to the conference suites.

We pride ourselves on being flexible and accommodate our guests to fit their individual requirements for the day.

The West Wing Function Room is the largest room we have available, which can seat up to 80 guests (depending on your chosen layout). We also have a fully licensed bar.

The West Wing Boardroom which sits opposite the West Wing Function Room and can seat smaller numbers for a private dinner or buffet. Seating up to 18.

The Beaters room which sits in our historic courtyard can seat smaller numbers for a private dinner or buffet. Seats up to 10.

The Georgian Dining Room sits in the splendid Georgian Hall where you can dine surrounded by paintings of the Clifton family and it's beautiful alcove servery by Gillow of Lancaster. Can seat up to 20.

These function rooms are available for hire when taking one of our catering packages.

Access to the function room on the day of hire is from 9.30am
